PASTORAL ASSOCIATE
1992-2018

Drop by drop encounter by encounter
the Lord's tender grace
has been poured upon us
by your gentle and holy ministry
Our hearts overflow with thanksgiving

In you, we recognized Jesus
In us, you affirmed the goodness of the Lord
In our seeking, you helped us to discover Jesus
In our love, you journeyed with us on the path to married life
In our joy, you reminded us that Jesus is so close to the newborn
In our illness, you prayed with us and for us
In our growing old, you held our hands
In our heartbreak, you were our companion
as we prayed our goodbyes to our deceased loved ones
In our search for peace and justice, you reminded us to see Jesus in the distressed disguise of the poor and hurting

All these sacred works done for the greater glory of the Lord will remain like ripples of hope in our hearts forever

Matthew 25 News

Thank you once again for your envelope contributions to Matthew 25 Committee. In the name of St. Mary Church, we were able to donate $1,500 to Homeless Connections during their weeks of matching funds. We specifically asked that our donation be used to provide parenting classes for families going through difficult times. Without your generosity we could not make these gifts.

JUNE TOOL COLLECTION

Our collection has been a huge success thus far! Let's keep it going! Be sure to check out the display in the Marian Way for wish list items. We are looking for gently used or new items, so shop your garage, basement, yard sales, or the Habitat for Humanity ReStore. Monetary donations are also welcome—there is a locked box near the display.

IN JOY & SORROW

WITH FR. BILL
SWICHTENBERG

This past Thursday (6/21) marked the Summer Solstice, the longest day of the year and the first day of summer. I always feel just a touch of sadness on this day, realizing that the days from here on out are growing shorter and shorter. I always am well aware, too, that the days of summer seem to speed by. Let's be attentive and grateful for the beauty of each summer day.

Sister Joan Chittister, OSB, probably one of the most renowned Catholic women of our time, author of forty plus books on theology and spirituality, a true prophet and wisdom figure of our time, and one of my mentors, proposes a beautiful reflection on summer in her book Between the Dark and the Daylight.

"(Today) we drive ourselves relentlessly from one exhaustion to another. We pace ourselves by the pace of our computers. We conduct the major relationships of our lives - both professional and personal - according to the speed of our communications. We measure ourselves by the amount of our productivity and every day we become more exhausted, less rested in body, mind and spirit, and so less capable of producing things, let alone of developing relationships, as a result. That's not irony, that's tragedy. And though we know it, we do not know what to do about it."

"Point: the grind is destructive of both the person and the work. Unless the soul can be refreshed enough to think, to create, to recoup its energy and its interest in the work at hand, there is no hope for either recall or creativity."

"Maybe what we all need most is time to process what we already know so that we can put it together differently, even more efficiently than ever before. Maybe we need to think a bit, out on a porch in a summer breeze, down by the creek when the trout are running, back in the garden when it's time to put the beets and beans in again."

"Turn off the television and read a good book. Quit texting and ride your bike. Close the computer and go to a movie. Don't answer any e-mails. Don't try to get ahead. Don't take any callbacks. And during family dinner, turn off the phone. And when the television is on, watch it instead of talking through it. (Note: I didn't even know you could do this! I can't!). Reclaim your life, your thoughts, your personality, your friends and your family."

"No, the world will not end. And then on Monday, go back to work - having really gotten away from it all - feeling like what you have to do is really worth doing. As Ashleigh Brilliant says, Sometimes the most urgent thing and vital thing you can possibly do is to take a complete rest."

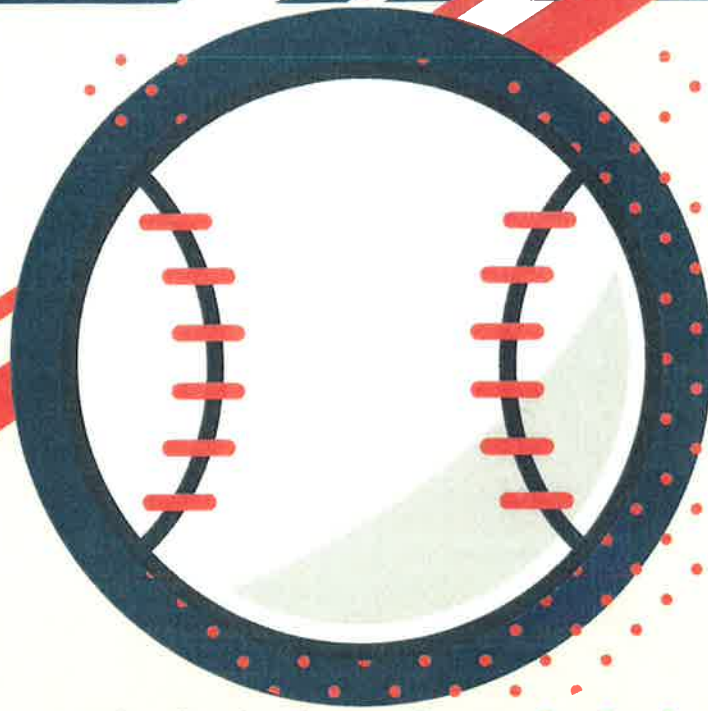

I like these beautiful lines from Father Edward Hay's A Summer Sunset Psalm:

O Beloved Friend and Earth Designer, gently refresh me now with your evergreen pardon/for my failure to drink deeply of your love/hidden cleverly in every gift/that has come my way today. Forgive my rushing past/the countless visions of you/ unique to this day/held so tenderly in the beauty of your love. Forgive my absent-mindedness, the deafness of my ears/ my senses blinded by my busyness today. Blessed are you, Holy Parent, who will soon wrap me in sleep and cradle me in the womb of your peace.

Happy Summer!

Fr. Bill +
