Church DOORS

To help minimize disruptions to Mass and to increase safety for our parishioners, there are a couple changes regarding the church doors starting the weekend of December 6 & 7.

1. The side ramp entrance to church (Door 6) will not be used for winter months, December through March and possibly longer.
2. The main church doors (Door 7) will be locked 10 minutes after Mass begins. You will still be able to attend Mass. After that time, please use the office entrance (Door 1) or the back lot entrance (Door 3).

If you have questions, please feel free to contact Chris Higgins in the office or email him at: chiggins@stmaryparish.org.

Generosity CORNER

We are in full swing for Advent and halfway through December. It is a season of hope and joy. We thank you for your support. Historically, in December, giving is almost double compared to other months. With your generosity we are on target to meet that goal.

Month	Income	Budget	Variance
Dec(to date)	$65,248.32	$75,083.33	-$9,835.01

Your giving at work in the parish:

- If you have any end of year stock transfers, or other gifts, please let us know. Through the end of the year the office will be open December 22 & 23 normal hours, and December 29 & 30 from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm. Our last deposit for the year will be on December 30th.
- Our Let Us Pray! The Christmas Concert was a beautiful evening of prayer and song. If you missed it you can watch it here in Joy & SORROW

ST MARY PARISH - APPLETON // 12.21.2025

WITH FR. BILL SWICHTENBERG

I like Madeleine L'Engle's poem "First Coming [of the Son of God]!"

*He did not wait till the world was ready,
till men and nations were at peace.
He came when the Heavens were unsteady,
and prisoners cried out for release.*

*He did not wait for the perfect time.
He came when the need was deep and great.
He dined with sinners in all their grime,
turned water into wine.*

*He did not wait till hearts were pure.
In joy he came to a tarnished world of sin and doubt.
To a world like ours, of anguished shame
he came, and his Light would not go out.*

*To a world like ours,
of anguished shame
he came, and his Light
would not go out.*

*He came to a world which did not mesh,
to heal its tangles, shield its scorn.
In the mystery of the Word made Flesh
the Maker of the stars was born.*

*We cannot wait till the world is sane
to raise our songs with joyful voice,
for to share our grief, to touch our pain,
He came with Love: Rejoice! Rejoice!*

So true it is that our world is still in such a state of turmoil. There is a mood of dark uncertainty around us. There is an unease about the chaos and the spirit of brutality in our land that can be overwhelming if you and I dwell upon it at too great a length. What we stand for as Christian believers and as citizens grounded in a democratic dream that was forged by the blood, sweat, and tears of our forefathers and foremothers is being challenged. We wonder if we will have the determination to stand firm.

This I know without any equivocation whatsoever: The Son of God, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, our Savior Jesus became like us so that we might become like Him. Jesus was undeterred in proclaiming in word and deed that every human being is charged with a God-given dignity that can never be denied or denigrated. This is the foundation of the Gospel that defines Christianity. Every action in our personal lives and in the life of our society and its governing bodies must be influenced by this incontrovertible reality. For you and me, the Gospel is the organizing principle of our lives. Sadly, some of our fellow Christians are of the mind that the Gospel no longer works for us; it is weak.

To vilify another human being is to participate in the work of Satan, whose only intent is to plunge us into the dark pit of division and despair.

Our Jewish brothers and sisters have great dignity and a right to celebrate with joy their great feast of Hanukkah, assured of their safety! Antisemitism is a soul sickness still too much in the hearts of some.

Our young people have a right to a peaceful education on our campuses, where they do not have to fear that gunfire will ring out in their midst and take their friends and classmates away from them.

We look for glimmers of holiness in every family. We agonize with families who have a loved one chained to addiction and tormented by mental illness. Healing is possible though hard.

Our immigrant sisters and brothers are not aliens or vermin or garbage. Whatever their immigration status, they have a right to be treated with the dignity that is their due as daughters and sons of God.

Sadly, this above list could go on and on. Every social ill and every darkness in our world begins when you and I do not treasure and speak out on behalf of every human person who has great worth in the eyes of Jesus.

This realization is at the heart of the Mystery of the Incarnation of Our Lord Jesus Christ. While the Incarnation broke into our world a long time ago, today and every day is the Day of Christmas. Jesus only wants for us to open our hearts to Him today. If Jesus is to be born into our world, He must be born into your heart and my heart now. You and I are called to be living witnesses to the Gospel of Jesus.

Conformed to the mind and heart of Jesus, we shape all of our words, actions, viewpoints, and perspectives to align with Jesus's. Any prejudice or discrimination or refusal to come to a new understanding or perspective give credibility to a process that I would call "dis-Incarnation." There are realities in our world that have a power to cover over the grace of the Lord's Incarnation. The Light of the Father's Love for us made human in Jesus is still pushing against the darkness. Incarnated in you and me is the only way this Light will grow brighter and scatter the darkness which is sometimes our "tangled, tarnished, and anguished" world.

I pray that you will be blessed with the joy and peace that are Jesus' gifts to you on these holy Christmas days. May your celebrations with family and friends give you a greater resolve to be the beacon of Love that so many of our sisters and brothers are desperately waiting to experience!

As the Jubilee Year of Hope comes to a conclusion, let us imprint upon our hearts this prayer:

"Jesus, be with me now! In You, I place all my hope! You will never disappoint me!"

Fr. Bill +
