

FELLOWSHIP

“Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the one who sent me.” (Mark 9. 37)

“Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep.” (Rom 12.15)

“Love enables us to create one great family, where all of us can feel at home... Love exudes compassion and dignity” (Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti 62)

Do I receive others from my heart with a spirit of hospitality? Or do I analyze others?

Am I willing to enter into the life / story of another with an attitude of welcome? What does this look like?

Do I feel responsible to everyone? Or not? If not, why not? Whom do I exclude?

When I receive Christ in the Eucharist, am I aware that I am receiving in charity all my brothers and sisters?

What is our “parish temperature” in all these areas?

DISCIPLESHIP

Jesus washes the disciples feet

"he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him." (Jn. 13.1-17)

"I have been crucified with Christ; yet I live, no longer I, but Christ lives in me; insofar as I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God who has loved me and given himself up for me." (Gal. 2.20)

How am I aware of Jesus living in me? What is my story?

Do I allow Jesus to live in me? How do I get "out of the way" so that Jesus can live in and through me?

What choices / attitudes were at the heart of Jesus' way of life? Am I willing to make these same choices in my own life?

How do we as a parish "think, feel, and act" like Jesus? What does being energized by the Spirit of Jesus look like in our parish family?

MINISTRY

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.” (Luke 4. 18-19)

“No one is saved alone; we can only be saved together [...] we are part of one another.” (Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti 32)

Do I imagine / experience my parish family as a real family? What is this experience like? What may be a barrier to it?

Do I feel like a true member of this parish family? Do I feel connected? Am I invited to / able to contribute to our parish family?

Am I willing to discern/share my gifts in and with my parish family?

WORSHIP

“Let anyone who thirsts come to me and drink.
Whoever believes in me, as scripture says:
'Rivers of living water will flow from within him.' ”

Global

How does my worship extend beyond Mass and the sacraments?

Is worship a way of life for me? If so, how? If not, why not?

Do I experience God's transformative love as I worship? If so, when have I experienced this?

Do I welcome the marginalized in both personal and communal prayer?

MISSION

“The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. (Jesus) said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.’” (John 20. 20-21)

“God continues to look for those whom he can send forth into the world and to the nations to bear witness to his love, his deliverance from sin and death, his liberation from evil.”
(Pope Francis, Message for World Mission Day 2020)

What impact did Jesus have on the world? What impact does Jesus invite me to have on the world?

To whom did the Father send Jesus? To whom does Jesus send me?

Am I willing to speak out loud to my family / friends / about the love Jesus has shown me? Do I take time to reflect on God's love in my life?

Am I willing for Jesus to send me to love people on the margins? Is there anyone to whom I would be unwilling to be sent? How does Jesus feel about that?
