VIA LUCIS

Way of the Light

April 18 | 7pm

The Via Lucis, also known as the Stations of the Resurrection, celebrates the triumph of Jesus over death, following Christ and his disciples from Resurrection morning through the Ascension and to Pentecost.

*Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
O sons and daughters, let us sing!
The King of heaven the glorious King,
Over death today rose triumphing,
Alleluia!*

COR JESU

First Thursday of every month, 7-9pm

- 7-8pm: Adoration with praise & worship
ALL are welcome
- 8-9pm: Fellowship for young adults ages 18-35

By spending time with the Eucharistic Jesus, we are called to become His friends and disciples. Here we can speak with Him about everything. The more time we spend with Jesus, the more we come away feeling renewed and healed. Through this friendship, we are inspired and strengthened to take on life's challenges, to carry our daily cross with a new attitude, to become more and more like Jesus.

04.14.24

In the life of our spiritual family at Saint Mary Parish, there are always highlight moments of great joy. Usually the cameras come out to capture these holy events.

Certainly the piece de resistance [masterpiece, tour de force], if you will, is the celebration of the Easter Vigil on the night of Holy Saturday. There is no other liturgical moment that can live up to the beauty of the celebration of the Lord Jesus' Resurrection! Outside in the dark, the lighting of the New Fire, the capture of that dancing light reaching out into the darkness, to become the flame of the newly-blessed Easter Candle, the peeling out into the world of the acclamation, "Christ our Light!" and the singing of the great hymn announcing with exaltation the glories of our salvation.

The Liturgy of Initiation, the celebration of the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist, is such a holy moment, as if all of time stops, and the gift of eternal life in the Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier, rushes into the bodies, hearts, and spirits of those new Catholic Christians! Amazing grace! Many blessings to our newest Catholic Christians: Emily, and her beautiful daughter and son, Ave and Amori, Angelina, Mathis and Martin!

This year's celebration of the Easter Vigil at Saint Mary was spectacular and profoundly moving!

Certainly another joyful moment for our spiritual family is the celebration of First Holy Communion. We are inspired by the joy and eagerness on the faces of our holy children, matching all that is beautiful in their hearts. Parents of these precious children, help your daughter or son to remember this holy day! Remember what the weather was like! Remember just a bit of the message in the homily! Remember tasting and seeing the Risen Jesus in the Precious Gift of His Body and Blood! Take lots of pictures!

At this holy time, I usually take off my bookshelf Amy Welborn's Friendship with Jesus: Pope Benedict XVI Speaks to Children on their First Communion.

Andrea asks the Holy Father, "Jesus is present in the Eucharist. But how? I can't see Him."

Pope Benedict responds, "We don't see an electric current, yet we see that it exists: we see this microphone, that it is working and we see lights. Even if we do not see the very deepest things, those that really sustain life and the world, we can still see and feel their effects. So it is with the Risen Lord. We don't see him with our eyes but we see that wherever Jesus is, people change, they improve..."

Guilia asks about going to Church on Sundays.

Pope Benedict kindly responds to her, "I would think, with great love and respect for your parents, [you could say something like,] Dear Mommy, Dear Daddy, it is so important for us all, even for you, to meet Jesus. Meeting Jesus [makes us happy.] It is an important part of our lives. Let's find a little time together. We can find a way."

Alessandro asks, "What good does it do in our everyday life to go to Holy Mass and receive Communion?"

"It centers life," suggests the Holy Father. "We live amid so many things. And the people who do not go to church do not know that it is precisely Jesus they lack. But they feel that something is missing in their lives. If God is absent from my life, if Jesus is absent from my life, then a guide, an essential friend is missing. A great joy is missing from my life as well, the strength to grow as a person, to overcome my vices and to mature as a human being."

An inspiring conversation, wouldn't you agree!

Let's ask for the grace to see the Risen Lord reaching out to us with His merciful love in Holy Communion! Let us see Jesus in our children and in every person!

Happy First Communion Sunday, Spiritual Family of Saint Mary!
